

What to Bring

A wonderfully pleasant and flexible attitude

A hunger for God and a desire to know Him more

An appetite for some awesome food

Your Bible and a pen or pencil & paper to take notes

Towels for your showers (yes, you must shower)

Clothes for play

Closed-toe shoes

Warm clothes to play outside

Socks, clean underwear for every day, the basics

Your shirts must have sleeves. No sleeveless shirts or tank tops. It's January.

T-shirts will be great. I mean, who you trying to impress anyway? We're all family.

You'll probably want to check the schedule to see how many "outfits" you'll need for each day.

Flashlight or headlamp for night activities

Something to put your dirty clothes in (so they don't get left behind or lost)

Toothbrush, toothpaste, shampoo, soap, deodorant, and other bathroom paraphernalia This event is in January, so you may want warm clothes and even an umbrella

Spending money for the Snack Shop.

**Lunch money for Monday. We will stop on the road to eat lunch.

What NOT to Bring

A bad attitude or thoughts that you're too good for something. That's just rude!

Inappropriate clothing, too short shorts, or clothing that sends ungodly messages. That's just tacky!

Any sort or kind of weapon. That's just dangerous!

Fireworks, hand grenades, or anything else that makes loud noises. That's just not as funny as you think it is! Any sort of drug that is not prescribed to you. That's just illegal!

Mp3 players, iPods, and music players. That just doesn't promote good conversation!

Animals of any sort other than human. That's just distracting!

Pranking items of any nature. That's just dumb and will get you in lots of trouble!

Spatulas, aluminum foil in large quantities, lamp shades, wheelbarrows, or anything else that is just ridiculous!

TVBC, Jeremy Babb, and your fellow youth group members thank you for your cooperation!

Shocco Springs provides bedding and pillows (you will have to make your own bed). If you need your own blanket and pillow, that's fine cupcake. They do not provide towels, (please don't forget the TOWELS).
