Parent/Child Dedication Service: March 16

This special service is for active members/ regular attenders with children 2 and under. We are excited to share this important time with families in the church who are committing to raise their children as unto the Lord and are committed as a family to partner in working and sharing the Gospel alongside our local church in this community and the world.

- The Parent-Child dedication service is a time when parents commit to raising their child in the instruction of Christ through the Scripture within the church family. It is to be entered into seriously by parents.
- Parents should be committed members or faithfully attending Tannehill Valley Baptist Church.
